Knee Begging Plea from Blip Drums

Every day we get alerts from Google when our Blip Drums products get posted to free file sharing sites. Every day we send emails to these websites asking for them to please remove our products. Most the time, we're amazed to get emails back telling us the files have been removed. It's a lot of effort to try and keep our products from becoming saturated on file sharing sites. It only takes one upload to create a lot of work for us. We're on our knees asking you, as a purchaser and customer of Blip Drums, to please not upload our samples to any file sharing sites. We seriously appreciate your business and support!
